

FOR THE
Whim
PRODUCTIONS

The Whimsical

For the Whim IN OUR COMMUNITY

On June 27, some of our members supported the Ranch Hope Law Enforcement and Developing Emergency Responders Camp. Beverly Beardsley, Richard Mooney, Joe Dugan, Jared Camacho, Heidi Dugan, and Lily Jarve stretched their improv muscles, facilitating campers in collecting evidence and solving a homicide case. If your organization needs actors, reach out to us!

AUDITIONS August 24 & 25!

Production Manager Rachael Smith and Director Beverly Beardsley seek a diverse cast for this powerful drama. Audition readings are pre-posted for your convenience. Doors open (Hopeloft, 40 E. Commerce St, Bridgeton) at 6:30 and group readings will begin at 7pm. Please find audition forms, and details about characters on our webpage.

Featured Officer

COMMUNITY EDUCATION AND OUTREACH OFFICER, ASH KOTTER

Theatre Experience

- Always performing from elementary through high school
- BFA in performance from Hofstra University; executive board of the musical theatre club (two years as treasurer and senior year as Co-President)

Finding FTW

While exploring South Jersey theatre, she looked for a company that prioritized plays. She auditioned for Harvey, and the rest is history!

Hobbies

Reading, writing (mostly poetry), singing, baking and cooking (no one can make a better pancake), hanging with her kids, finding cute coffee spots with WiFi to work from

Opportunities!

AUGUST 15: Deadline for show staffing applications for And Then There Were None. click here for info.

AUGUST 24-25: Auditions for Radium Girls.

JOIN US

The Monthly FTW Board Meeting is held on the 2nd Wednesday of each month at 6:30pm via Google Meet. All are welcome to support our mission and productions!

For the meeting link, email: administrative@ftwproductions.com

Coming Soon ...

FOR THE WHIM PRODUCTIONS IS GRATEFUL FOR FUNDING FROM:

