The Whimsical

Volunteers needed

For the Whim is an all-volunteer organization, from our Officers to our actors, our stage crews to our box office staff. All members of FTW must complete volunteer hours each year. We have so many opportunities for you to give back according to your time, abilities, and interests.

- join a committee
- serve on our Board
- greet show patrons
- work backstage
- build a set
- sew or source costumes
- direct, stage manage, or production manage a show
- work a PR event
- ...and MORE!

Together we can all keep FTW
excelling and growing!

See our Membership Page for more details and to become one of us TODAY!

Featured Officer

OPERATIONS OFFICER
JIM LUDOVICI

Theatre Experience

- Always performing from elementary through high school
- BFA in performance from Hofstra University; executive board of the musical theatre club (two years as treasurer and senior year as Co-President)

Finding FTW

While exploring South Jersey theatre, she looked for a company that prioritized plays. She auditioned for Harvey, and the rest is history!

Hobbies

Reading, writing (mostly poetry), singing, baking and cooking (no one can make a better pancake), hanging with her kids, finding cute coffee spots with WiFi to work from Opportunities!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED for box office and lounge for And Then There Were None. See the show for FREE!
